Sen. Cropsey welcomes Stanton pastor

LANSING — Sen. Alan Cropsey, R-DeWitt, welcomed Pastor Curt Mudgett of Trinity Church in Stanton to the state Capitol today.

Mudgett gave the invocation Thursday to start the Senate's session. At the Capitol he met state leaders such as Lt. Gov. John Cherry.

"I am honored to be able to invite local religious leaders like Pastor Mudgett to the Capitol," Cropsey said. "His words reminded all of us in the Senate of the importance of working each day for the betterment of our state."
